BIO

Red Shift Mantra is the cosmic metaphor made audible — the red shift of distant light stretched low, the mantra as vibration that reshapes consciousness through repetition. Two albums map this terrain: Phoneme (9 tracks of granular synth architecture) and Deep Field Image (7 tracks inspired by the Hubble Deep Field observation).

The sound occupies the space between synthwave's pulse and ambient's expanse. It is not retro-futurism. It is cosmic realism — the sound of a universe that is mostly empty, punctuated by the violence of creation.

KEY TRACKS FOR SYNC
TRACK	CAT #	BPM	TIME	SYNC DESCRIPTION
Obsidian	MR-006	120	5:38	Driving synthwave with granular texture. Night driving, tech reveals, high-stakes montage.
Ajna	MR-002	90	7:22	Hypnotic synth architecture, drone to pulse. Meditation sequences, consciousness expansion.
Kobayashi Maru	MR-006	110	4:51	Tension-laden electronic. Cliffhangers, training sequences, impossible-choice narratives.
